

Dear Speech Team Colleagues:

We are involved in one of the greatest activities available to our students; the skills that they learn benefit them in ways that they do not even recognize, both in their academic careers and beyond. With that in mind (as well as the fact that Belleville is fifteen minutes away from St. Louis, “the gateway city”), we are excited to host this year’s IHSA state speech tournament: “Speech: Your Gateway to Success.”

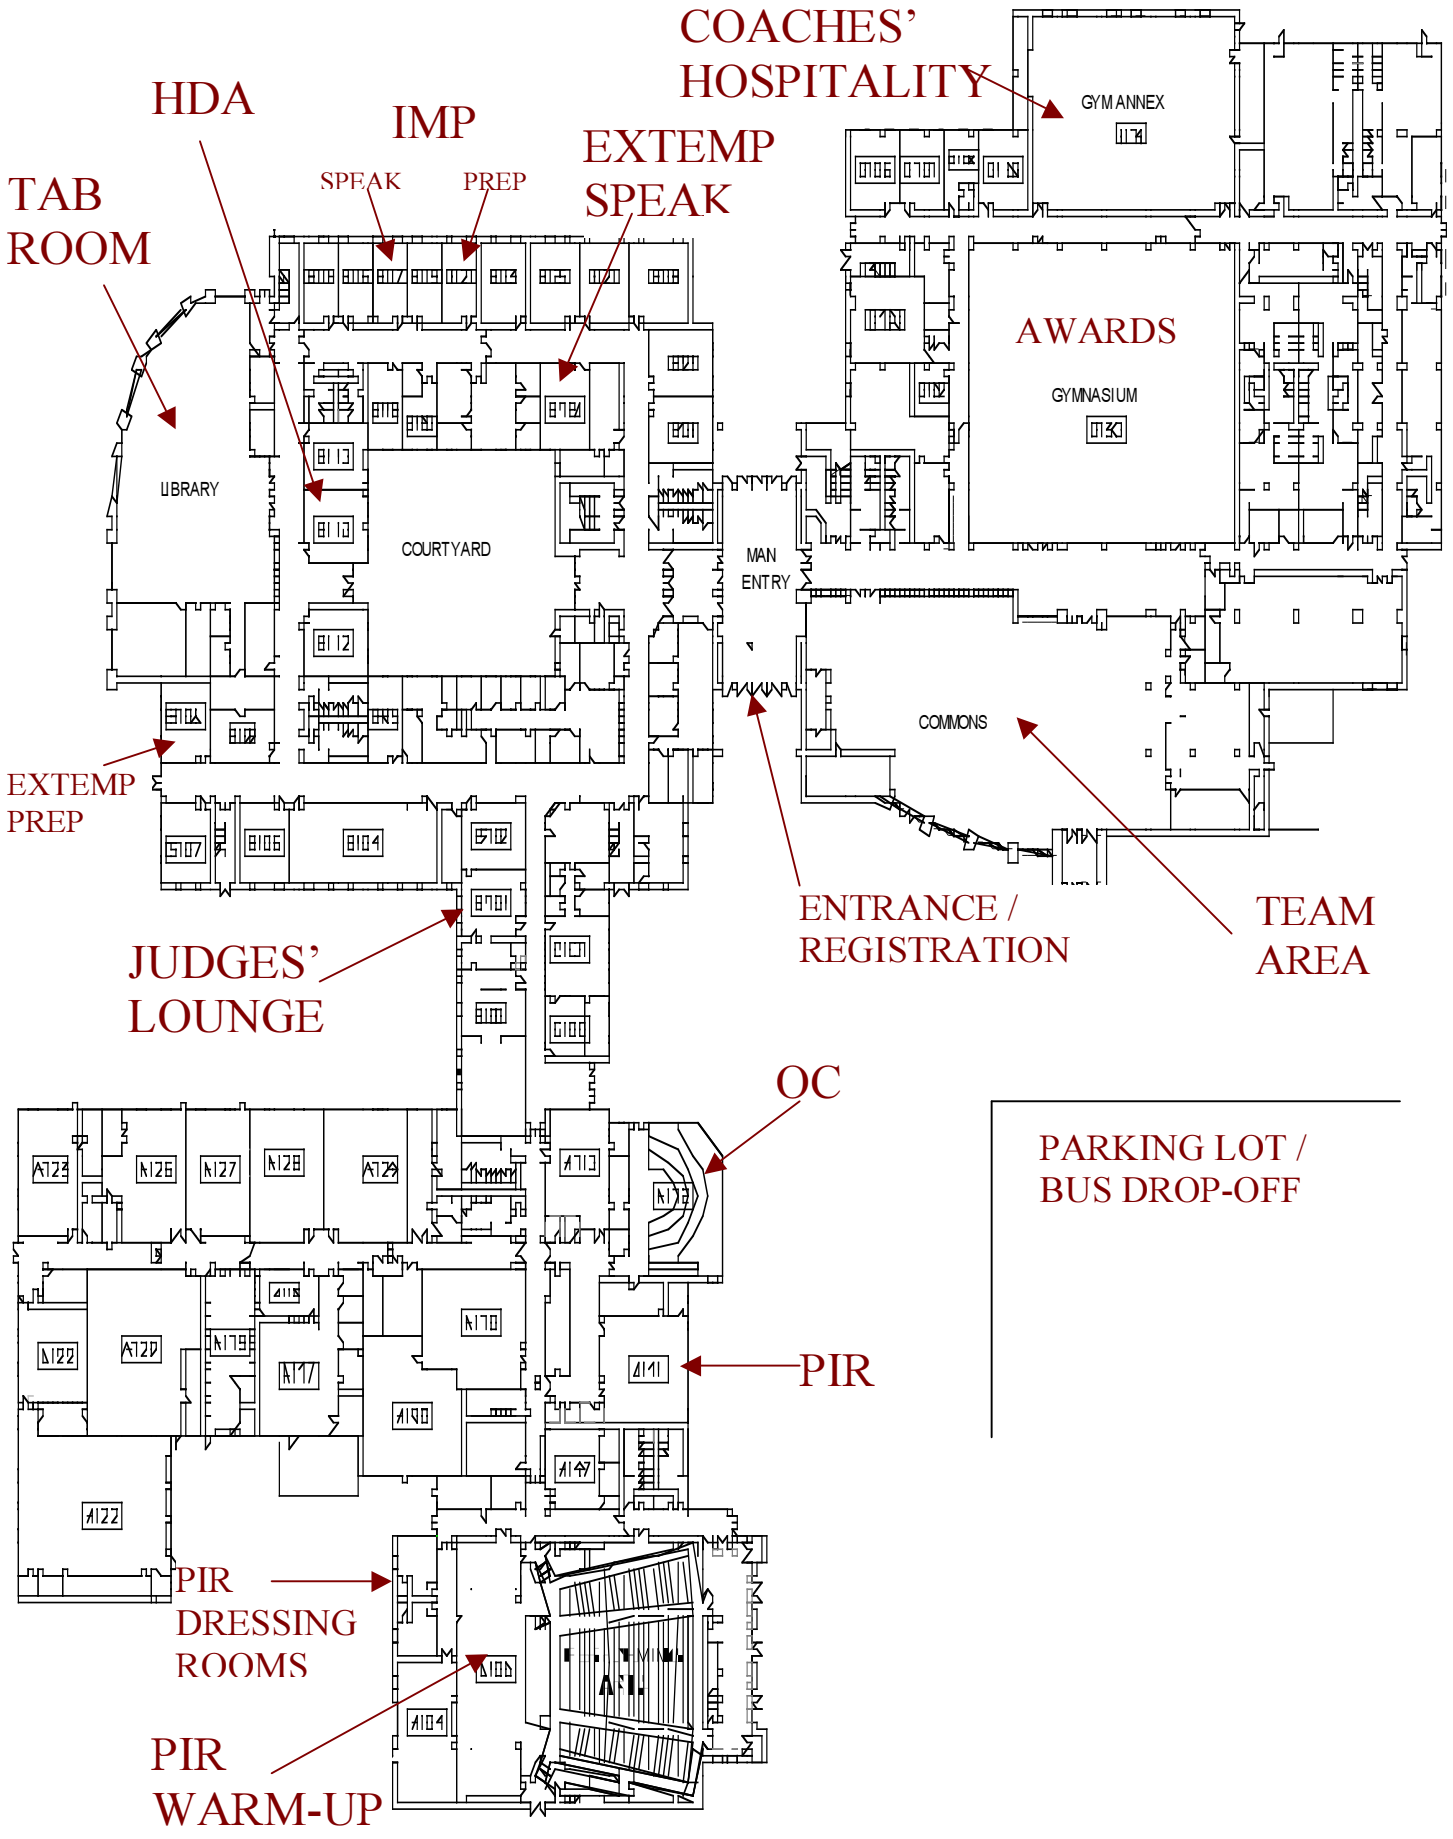

Throughout the weekend, we will celebrate the accomplishments of this year’s competitors, but we will also highlight the accomplishments of some former speech competitors who went on to accomplish great things in a variety of fields.

Just a couple of points of interest:

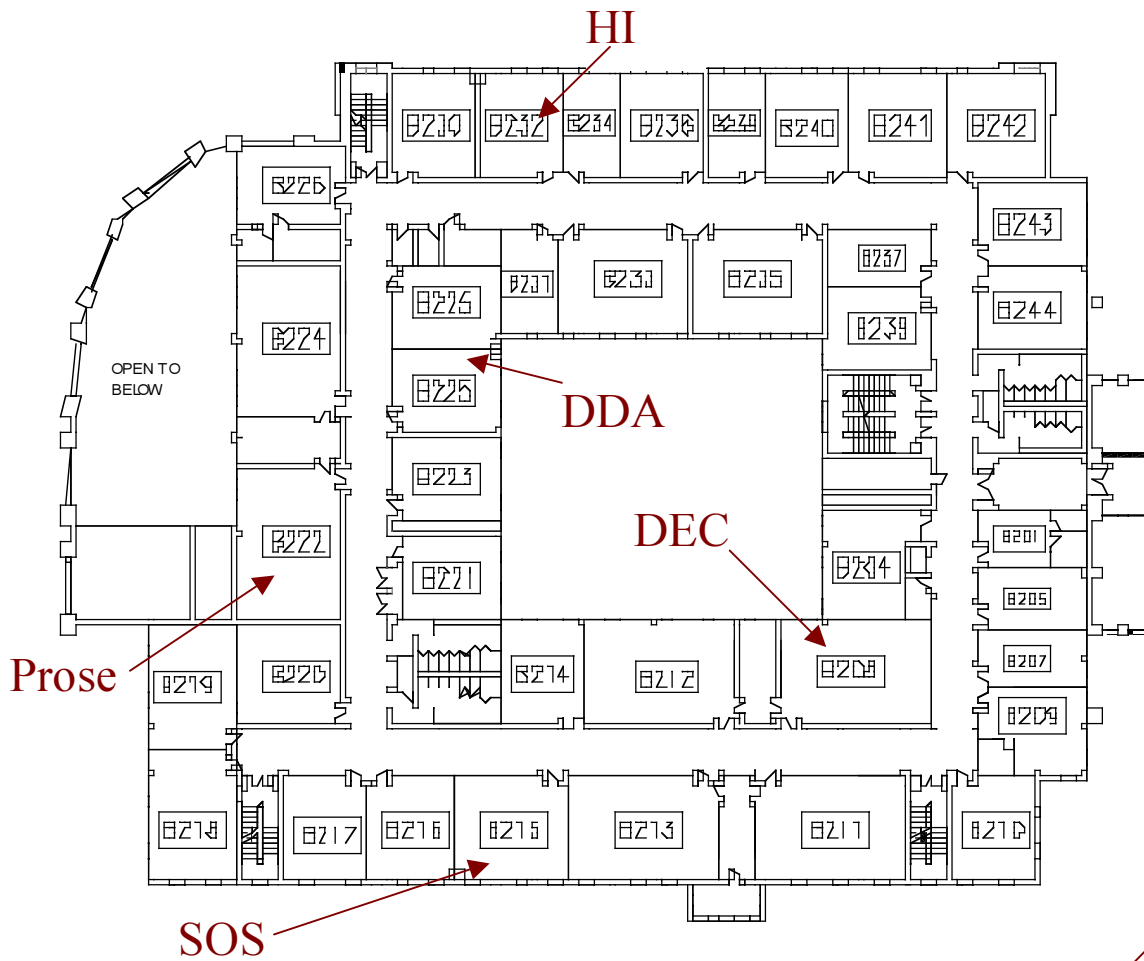

1. Please do not arrive earlier than the 3 p.m. check-in time. Students will be in school until 11:45 a.m., and we will need every possible minute to prepare the school for the tournament. Please follow the path on the attached map when you arrive to keep traffic flowing.
2. PIR warm-up will be in the performing arts center. To clear up table space in the cafeteria, you may choose to leave props and costumes in the theatre lobby. However, there will not be anyone there to monitor the area, so leave things at your own risk.
3. Check your email. I don’t anticipate any other changes or announcements, but in the event that I need to let everyone know something, I will send it via email through speechwire up until the Wednesday before.
4. If you did not send me a picture of your regional team, or if your regional host did not take one, send it NOW to ajenkins@bths201.org

Thanks, and I look forward to seeing you in Belleville!!

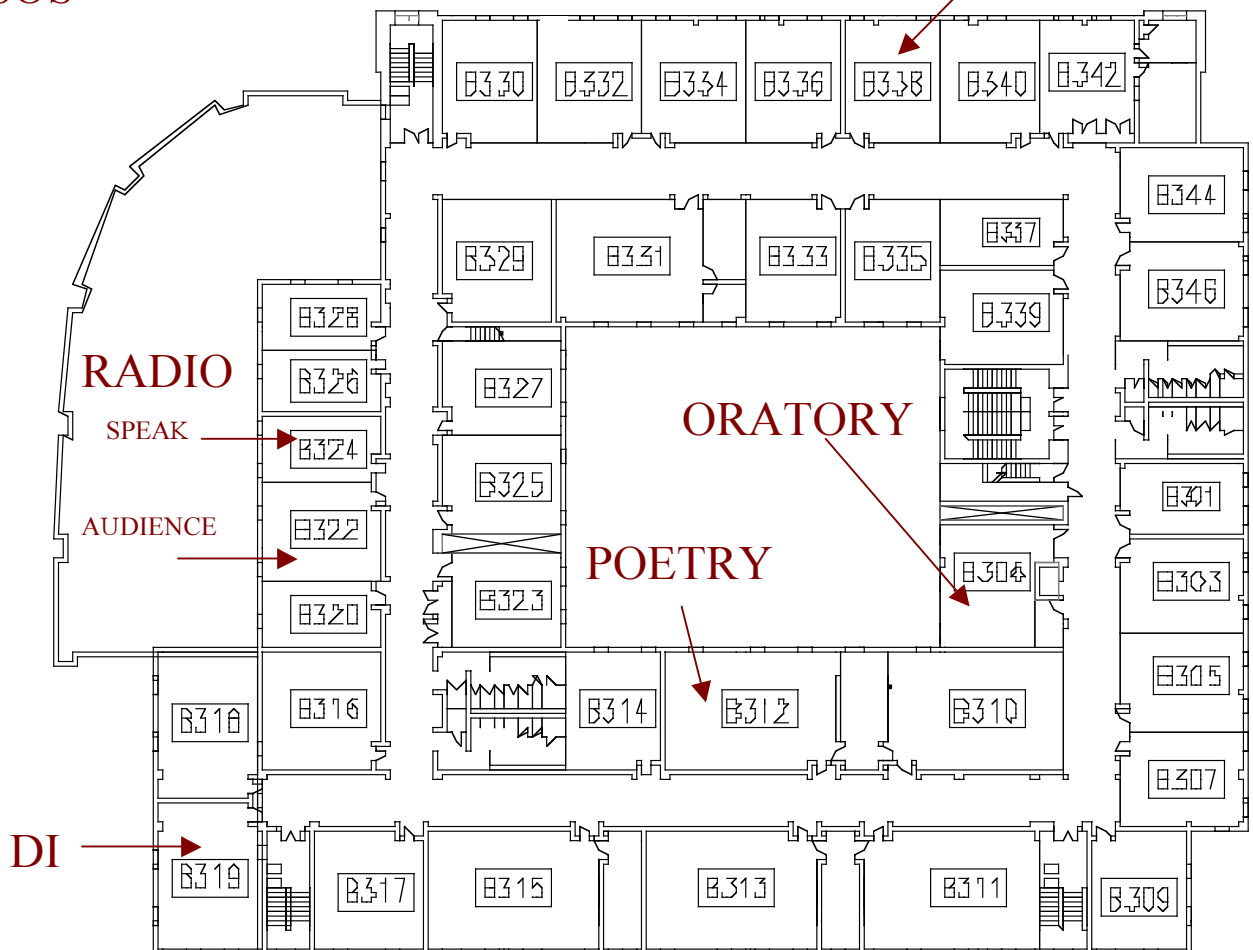

Adam Jenkins
