2022 IHSA CLASS 3A BOYS BASKETBALL

Saturday, March 12, 2022

Championship, Game 15

State Farm Center, Champaign

Winning Coach – Timothy Allen, Springfield (Sacred Heart-Griffin)

He fumbled a little bit but there were still seconds on the clock. When he shot it and it hit the front of the rim, I was like it's going in. Our season's gone like that. It's npo better ending than what we had today as to how our season went.

When the game is on the line, these guys are champions and that's what they do.

I told (Danny Grieves), it's amazing that we have downstate guys here and we get a little respect. I'm happy that we had that as a championship game.

Keshon Singleton (on final shot)

I came off the screen and went to dribble and went for the pull up but out of my peripheral I saw him try to jump me so I tried to crossover and get a kick on it. The ball was loose and I was like, OK, I gotta throw up a prayer to even have a chance, and it went in.

Losing Coach – Danny Grieves, Metamora

I couldn't be more proud of the guys sitting up here with me. I couldn't be more proud of the guys that are in the locker room because without them, we wouldn't be here.

Sacred Heart-Griffin gave us everything they had. I asked our guys, all I want you to give me is all you got. We had nothing left. A bounce and a bounce there, we have a different outcome.

We were just trying to contain and contest. We thought they were going to go inside, I thought we did a pretty good job of not letting that happen. They'd gone inside all night long so we re going to try to cut that off and let the chips fall where they may. The kids made a heckuva shot, the shot of a lifetiome.
